Psalm 65
Epistle I Timothy 6 : 6-12 / II Corinthians 9: 6-15
Gospel Luke 21 : 1-4/John 6 : 26-35

Most gracious God, according to Your wisdom deep waters are opened up and clouds drop gentle moisture. We praise You for the return of planting and harvest seasons, for the fertility of the soil, for the harvesting of crops, and for all other blessings that You in Your generosity pour on this nation and people. Give us a full understanding of Your mercy, and help us live lives that will be respectful, holy, obedient to You throughout all our days, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, Amen.

Dedication of a Church or Anniversary

- OT I Kings 8 : 22-30 /II Chronicles 7 : 11-16

Eternal God, high and holy, no building can contain Your glory or display the wonders of our love. May this place be used as a gathering place for people of goodwill: when we worship, let us worship gladly; when we study, let us learn Your truth. May every meeting held here meet with Your approval, so that this building may stand as a sign of Your Spirit at work in the world and as a witness to You, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and ever. Amen.

Note:

This note is added to help those congregations who use Liturgical colours.

White is the colour for the festal periods from Christmas Eve to the festival of Epiphany, from Easter day to the eve of Pentecost, and for Trinity Sunday. It is also used for marriages, thanksgiving services, harvest festivals, the feast of dedication of a church and for feasts commemorating saints. White is suitable for baptism, confirmation and ordination, though red may be preferred.

Red is used on the feast of Pentecost, and during the week between Pentecost and Trinity Sunday. It is used on All Saints' day and for the feasts of those saints venerated as martyrs. It is appropriate for any service which focuses on the gift of the Holy Spirit, and is therefore suitable for baptism, confirmation and ordination.

Purple is the colour for Advent season and Lenten season and is therefore used from the first Sunday in Advent to the fourth Sunday in Advent; from Ash Wednesday until Holy Saturday. However, white may be preferred at holy communion service on Maundy Thursday.

Purple is recommended for funerals and for the commemoration of the faithful departed, although either black or white may also be used. White is preferred at the funeral of a child.

Green is the colour for ordinary Sundays. It is used between Epiphany and Ash Wednesday, and between Trinity Sunday and Advent Sunday.

Orange / Saffron CSI Episcopacy has instituted Orange/Saffron Handbands and stolls for its Bishops. Orange is colour of India & it is on the top of the Indian Flag symbolizing Indian spirituality of Prayer, Meditation, Sacrifice, Selflessness and Commitment. The CSI Episcopal vestments do not change the colours throughout the year, for Episcopacy stands for continuity of Pastoral Leadership, Solemnity & Dignity of Liturgical continuance and perpetual Theological reflection and commitment to God and to His Word and to His Church.
